CHIN FONG MACHINE INDUSTRIAL CO., LTD.

Dear esteemed customers,

Thailand now is suffering from the floods severely. We deeply feel sorry about this disaster. There's an old Chinese proverb: "One feels hungry when others do; one drowns when others are drowning." It totally expresses that we feel the same way as the victims of floods. From now on, we are going to relieve distress among the flood victims in Thailand, and collect donations for them to show our concern and care.

We also sincerely promise that we will spare no effort to restore the press machines of your company to normal operation.

The story of Noah's Ark, written in the Bible, is about the humans survived after the Deluge and then founded a new era. Therefore, we believe that working together with one heart can help us get through the difficulty, and the future will get better.

Kind regards,

CHIN FONG MACHINE INDUSTRIAL CO., LTD
